

Editorial Review for Once In A Blue Moon Bakery – by Neha Shah

In Short

The blue moon-themed murals add character to this simple coffee shop; it's the perfect place to run in for java or just sit awhile to escape the world. Beyond the counter lies the kitchen where one can find tortes, tarts, cheesecakes, pies and custom-made cakes are divine creations, and endless flavors are impossible to choose from. Light lunches are available for takeout or dine-in, plus soup, salad, pasta salad or quiche.
