Editorial Review for McIntyre's Fine Books and Bookends – by Neha Shah

In Short

An independent bookstore with a focus on meeting readers' needs, you'll find a considerable assortment of travel, history, mystery, gardening, cooking and children's books. Grab a latte and park in front of the fireplace after a hard day of book browsing and nifty book-accessory shopping. It's elegant and expansive, with an upstairs area and vast rooms to explore. Subtle colors and classical furniture lure you into spending a few hours perusing or lazing. The staff knows regular visitors by name.

Insider Tips

The Extras

If you can't decide on a selection, read the brief handwritten reviews that bookmark the items--they're honest critiques by book lovers.

When to Go

The medley of local, regional and national authors (Amy Tan and former President Jimmy Carter are past guests) read from and sign copies of their work.
