

Editorial Review for Scout & Molly's – by Neha Shah

In Short

A girl, who knows girls, planned the layout of this boutique store, making it easy for women to browse through collections. Designer clothes, including Herve Chapelier, Trina Turk and Nanette Lepore, are neatly displayed on hangers and shelves. Purses are not located in one solitary section; rather, they are strategically strewn among the clothes so you can mix and match. And accessories, such as pendants, are conveniently located at the checkout counter.
