

Editorial Review for Serena Signature Spa Salon – by Neha Shah

In Short

The earthy environment exudes warmth while evoking purity and calm with Aveda-green tones. A pleasant mix of rugs, hardwood floors and primitive-inspired furnishings make this two-story house cozy. Windows splash light into rooms but are covered up to allow for solitude and privacy when patrons receive massages, body treatments, wet treatments and facials. Hair removal, sunless tanning, manicures, pedicures and makeup application also are performed. They even have a full-service hair salon.
